REAL innovation
unites the sciences for justice

Cross-Cutting Innovation

The Global Forensic and Justice Center (GFJC) is focused on cross-cutting innovation to benefit forensic science and criminal justice. The GFJC not only bridges the crime scene to the courtroom, breaking down previously held silos of education and training in disciplines, but connects the research to the real-world through working partnerships with local, state, national and international agencies.

We are dedicated to not only creating innovation in the laboratories, but engaging in legal, engineering, environmental, nursing, and communication innovations. Our outreach events provide opportunities for professionals, researchers, students, and future forensic scientists to be connected to cutting-edge research.

Your support of our signature events throughout 2022 will create a lasting legacy of FIU's impact on forensic science and criminal justice around the world.

A Global Impact

Our training and educational opportunities have a global reach.

From in-person laboratory trainings in Panama and Morocco, to virtually hosting more than 100 speakers from 39 countries, the GFJC knows science has no boundaries.

Here's just a snapshot of the countries we reached in 2021.

Annual Forensic Science Symposium

- Free, hybrid event open to professionals, researchers, and students around the globe
- More than 1,200 registrations in 2021 from nearly 40 countries
- Nearly 80 hours of CEU-eligible content
- 2022 will provide hybrid booth experiences to optimize in-person, virtual and on-demand attendees

FIU

ROTC Biometrics and Forensics Internship

- Unique two-week hands-on course in cutting-edge technology and techniques
- Offered yearly to 12 Cadets at no cost since 2009
- Most sought-after internship for incoming senior Cadets

GFJC Seminar Series

- Bi-weekly speaker series, highlight research, technology, best practices, and career advice
- Free and open to professionals and students alike
- Virtual platform provides live and on-demand access for global reach

Education Outreach

- One-week Forensic Science/CSI summer camp for middle to high school students
- On-going activities for students and teachers throughout the school year
- Adapted for virtual learning and at-home friendly experiments
- Sponsorship provides free or reduced-cost supplies to teachers and students

What it means to support the GFJC

Not only does your 2022 sponsorship ensure we can create these cost-effective events but benefits the advancement of GFJC's global mission. This provides funding for training programs, research projects, and international justice initiatives.
